ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE OF THE SOCIETY

ARTICLE 9. INCREASE AND REDUCTION IN CAPITAL

The capital may be increased to allow for the admission of new voting Societies or reduced by reason of the exclusion or withdrawal of voting Societies.

ARTICLE 10. LIABILITY OF VOTING SOCIETIES

The voting Societies shall have a right to ownership of the capital in proportion to the shares which they possess in this capital and they are bound with regard to third parties by the debts and liabilities of BIEM in the same proportions. Nonetheless, in their dealings with one another, the voting Societies are bound by the debts and liabilities of BIEM in proportion to their respective contributions to the administrative costs of BIEM.

ARTICLE 11. ADMISSION OF NEW SOCIETIES

11.1 Requests for admission of new voting Societies shall be sent to the “Gérant” at least two months before a meeting of the General Assembly, and then transmitted by him to the Management Committee. The latter shall check, in accordance with Article 2, whether, on the one hand, the candidate Society administers recording and mechanical reproduction rights or has, by virtue of its Statutes, the capability to administer said rights, and whether, on the other hand, it has an appropriate administrative system.

If the Management Committee observes that these criteria are met, it shall propose to the General Assembly meeting that it approve the membership of the Society in question.

If it observes that the candidate Society does not meet the aforementioned criteria, it shall decide to reject the application. It shall inform said Society in writing of the reasons for this rejection. A Society whose admission is thus rejected may send a written request to the “Gérant” to submit to the next General Assembly meeting a re-examination of the rejection decision given by the Management Committee. The Society in question shall be informed in writing, at least four weeks in advance, of the holding of the General Assembly meeting and the possibility of being heard by the General Assembly. To be heard by the General Assembly, the Society in question shall make a written request to the “Gérant” at least two weeks in advance.

The reasons for the rejection of a candidacy by the General Assembly shall be communicated to the Society in question in writing. A Society whose admission is thus rejected may renew its application for admission after a period of one year following the date of the General Assembly’s rejection decision.

11.2 Requests for admission of new non-voting Societies shall be sent to the “Gérant” at least two months before a meeting of the Management Committee, and then transmitted by him to the latter. The latter shall check, in accordance with Article 2, whether, on the one hand, the candidate Society administers recording and mechanical reproduction rights or has, by virtue of its Statutes, the capability to administer said rights, and whether, on the other hand, it has an appropriate administrative system. If the Management Committee observes that these criteria are met, it shall decide the admission of the Society in question.

If the Management Committee decides to reject the application, it shall inform said Society in writing of the reasons for this rejection. A non-voting Society whose admission is thus rejected may renew its application for admission after a period of one year following the date of the Management Committee’s rejection decision.

ARTICLE 12. WITHDRAWAL

Any voting or non-voting Society may withdraw at the end of each six-year period from 27th March 1989 upon notification of its decision to withdraw to the Management Committee through the “Gérant” by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt, at least one year before the end of the current period.

A withdrawing Society is only entitled to reimbursement of the cash sum paid in accordance with Article 8.

PART II

CAPITAL — ADMISSION, WITHDRAWAL AND EXCLUSION OF VOTING OR NON-VOTING SOCIETIES

ARTICLE 13. EXCLUSION

Any voting or non-voting Society which by its actions injures the moral or material interests of BIEM, deliberately violates all or part of the present Statutes, is subject to a bankruptcy or assimilated procedure or refuses to carry out decisions made in pursuance of the Statutes may be excluded from BIEM.

13.1 The exclusion of a voting Society shall be decided by the General Assembly on the Management Committee's recommendation. The voting Society subject to an exclusion procedure shall be informed in writing, at least four weeks prior to the holding of the Management Committee meeting, of the reasons for which its exclusion is envisaged and of the possibility of presenting written observations and being heard by the Management Committee or by the General Assembly, before any final decision is taken. The Society shall forward its written observations and, where applicable, its request for a hearing, to the "Gérant" at least two weeks in advance.

If the Management Committee decides to propose the Society's exclusion, either temporarily or indefinitely, to the General Assembly, it shall notify the latter of the substance of the observations presented by said Society. Exclusion may be temporary when the Society in question has taken actions to remedy the situation at the origin of the exclusion procedure and when those actions are considered by the Management Committee as having serious chances of remedying that situation. A temporary exclusion may not last more than one year but may be renewed.

The reasons for the temporary or definitive exclusion by the General Assembly of a voting Society shall be communicated in writing to the Society in question. In the case of a temporary exclusion, this communication shall include the duration of the exclusion.

A voting Society whose definitive exclusion has been decided can be reimbursed only the cash sum paid by it in conformance with Article 8. A voting Society which is excluded temporarily remains subject to all provisions of the Statutes, except the right to be a candidate for the Management Committee and to attend any technical committee during the exclusion period.

13.2 The exclusion of a non-voting Society shall be decided by the Management Committee. The non-voting Society subject to an exclusion procedure shall be informed in writing, at least four weeks prior to the holding of the Management Committee meeting, of the reasons for which its exclusion is envisaged and of the possibility of presenting written observations and being heard by the Management Committee, before the latter takes any final decision. The Society shall forward its written observations and, where applicable, its request for a hearing, to the "Gérant" at least two weeks in advance.

If the Management Committee decides to exclude a non-voting Society temporarily or indefinitely, it shall communicate its decision and its reasons to the latter. In the case of a temporary exclusion, this communication shall include the duration of the exclusion. The conditions for temporary exclusion are the same as those set out above.

A non-voting Society which is excluded temporarily remains subject to all provisions of the Statutes, except the right to cast any consultative vote at the General Assembly and to attend any committee.

PART II

CAPITAL — ADMISSION, WITHDRAWAL AND EXCLUSION OF VOTING OR NON-VOTING SOCIETIES

ARTICLE 14. ADMISSION OF NON-VOTING SOCIETIES

The Management Committee has the right to accept non-voting Societies who have no rights to the capital of BIEM and who consequently have no voting right as set out in Articles 19 and following and are not eligible to the Management Committee set out in Articles 22 and following of the present Statutes, but who participate in the General Assembly disposing for each one of them of a consultative vote.

PART III

FUNDS

ARTICLE 15. ANNUAL PAYMENT

An annual payment is received from all BIEM Societies:

- a) for voting Societies, the funds of BIEM are constituted by the annual payment, for each of them, on the one hand of a fixed sum of 457 EUR (four hundred and fifty-seven euros) and on the other hand by a contribution to the annual budget calculated in the proportion which the number of votes to which it is entitled bears to the total number of votes.
- b) for non-voting Societies the amount of the annual contribution is calculated, in each case, by the Management Committee, with regard to the sums of the collections of the Society.

The payments referred to in paragraphs a) and b) above, designed primarily to cover BIEM's administrative costs, must be called at least six weeks following the decision of the Management Committee. The Management Committee may specify whether these payments are to be made in one or more instalments and shall point out the deadline for payment of the contributions after receipt of the payment notification sent by BIEM.

PART IV

OFFICIAL BODIES

ARTICLE 16.

The official Bodies of BIEM shall be:

- the General Assembly
- the Management Committee,
- the “Gérant”.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE 17. CONVENING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The voting and non-voting Societies shall be convened by the Management Committee every year, to meet in Ordinary General Assembly on the day and at the hour and place specified in the Notice of Meeting. If the notice of meeting so provides, voting and non-voting Societies may participate in the General Assembly by means of telecommunications (such as videoconferencing or teleconferencing) that allow them to be identified and guarantee their effective participation through the transcription of their voices and the continuous and simultaneous transmission of the discussions.

General Assemblies may be specially convened by the Management Committee, except those convened to rule on accounts. They must also be convened by it on a request by voting Societies representing one-third of the total votes in the General Assembly the purpose of the request for the meeting in such a case compulsorily appearing on the agenda.

Notices convening meetings of Ordinary General Assemblies or of those specially convened shall be served by registered letter addressed to the voting and non-voting Societies at least four weeks in advance, together with the agenda fixed in advance by the Management Committee. Any subject whose insertion in the agenda will be requested after receipt of the agenda by a voting or non-voting Society will be dealt with under the heading "miscellaneous".

In case of urgency, the General Assembly may be convened exceptionally by the Management Committee at fifteen days' notice, with a mention of the agenda.

The General Assembly is chaired by the President of the Management Committee or, in his absence, the latter's Vice-President. Should both the President and the Vice-President of the Management Committee be absent, the General Assembly will appoint from amongst the attending delegates of the voting Societies, a chairman whose mandate will then be limited to chairing the Assembly that has elected him/her.

An attendance sheet shall be kept to be signed by delegates of voting Societies as well as by those of non-voting Societies or by the chairman of the Assembly in the case of voting or non-voting Societies attend the Assembly by means of telecommunication.

ARTICLE 18. PARTICIPATION IN ASSEMBLIES – QUORUM

All voting and non-voting Societies shall have the right to take part in General Assemblies and may be represented at them by another Society of the same category.

The General Assembly may not validly proceed to business unless half the votes held by the whole body of voting Societies are represented. If this condition is not fulfilled, the General Assembly shall be reconvened at two weeks notice and may then validly proceed to business whatever number of votes is represented by the voting Societies present.

ARTICLE 19. NUMBER OF VOTES

The General Assembly shall group together all voting Societies and two fixed votes shall be allotted to them and as many additional votes as they shall have collected one hundred and fifty-two thousand euros in the course of the preceding year from the administration of recording and mechanical rights in their territories of exploitation, fractions of one hundred and fifty-two thousand euros being ignored.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

This basis of calculation may be modified in case of significant monetary fluctuation by a resolution of the General Assembly passed by a simple majority of votes represented.

No Society shall be entitled to more than one hundred and twenty votes and Societies of a single country shall not be entitled in total to more than one hundred and twenty votes, it being understood that on this hypothesis the distribution of votes shall be made in proportion to the collections of each Society.

One delegate only, specially appointed for the purpose by each society, shall at the moment of voting dispose of the total votes allotted to this Society.

The non-voting Societies will each dispose of a consultative vote.

ARTICLE 20. POWERS - MAJORITY

The General Assembly shall be informed of all the decisions taken by the Management Committee and shall deliberate on the items appearing on its agenda.

1) Resolutions shall be passed by a simple majority of the votes represented, and in particular, those resolutions relating to the following matters:

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

- 2) Resolutions relating to the following matters shall be passed by a majority of three-quarters of the votes represented:
- approval of the text of the reciprocal or unilateral contract of representation drawn up by the Management Committee as well as the modifications to this contract,
 - final approval of admission of new voting Society,
 - exclusion of a voting Society,
 - increase or reduction of the capital.
- 3) Resolutions relating to the following matters shall be passed by a majority of fourth-fifths of the votes represented:
- modification of the Statutes,
 - extension or reduction of the duration of BIEM or its prior dissolution.

ARTICLE 21. WRITTEN CONSULTATION

All matters relevant to the authority of the General Assembly and considered appropriate by the Management Committee, in agreement with the President of the General Assembly, can be decided by a written consultation of the voting and non-voting Societies submitted to them for this purpose by registered letter.

In case of disagreement between the President of the General Assembly and the Management Committee concerning the possibility of a written consultation of the voting and non-voting Societies, the opinion of the President of the General Assembly will take precedence.

The decision resulting from the consultation will be subject to the majority of votes required according to Article 20 above.

Votes of voting Societies which have not been received by the 'Gérant' within a period of sixty days with effect from the despatch of the above-mentioned registered letter will not be taken into consideration in the result of the consultation.

The consultative votes of the non-voting Societies must reach the 'Gérant' within the same time period to figure in the consultation.

Answers to the consultation may be sent electronically to the email address provided to the voting or non-voting Societies in the consultation documents, where applicable.

Whatever the result of the consultation, the Management Committee has the power to call a meeting of the General Assembly, the question having been the subject of the consultation must, in this case, be included on the agenda.

MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

ARTICLE 22. COMPOSITION – APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS

The Management Committee shall be composed of ten members elected by a simple majority and by secret ballot of the General Assembly from amongst the delegates appointed to that Assembly whose application has been submitted by their voting Societies. No country shall be entitled to more than one seat on the Committee.

The duties of each member of the Management Committee shall take effect on the date of their appointment by the General Assembly and shall expire at the end of the first General Assembly held after the expiry of a period of three (3) years from their appointment. In the event of the replacement of a member of the Management Committee during their term of office, the term of office of their successor, whether a substitute member or not, shall expire at the normal end of their predecessor's term of office, unless otherwise decided by the General Assembly.

Within three months following his election each member of the Management Committee will provide for his address, email, and telephone number and nominate one or, if necessary, two Deputies who, in his absence, will have the right to all his prerogatives.

The Deputy may attend meetings with the elected member as an expert but without the right to vote.

Members of the Management Committee shall not receive any attendance fees or other remuneration.

Those persons, whether elected members or Deputies, who belong or come to belong, in any capacity whatsoever on a full-time basis to any public or private body devoted to phonographic, videographic, radiophonic or cinematographic exploitation or production or to television, shall not be eligible to serve on, or shall cease to form part of the Management Committee.

ARTICLE 24. CONVENING OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Management Committee shall appoint from amongst its members a President and a Vice-President and in their absence at the time of a meeting, a chairman of the meeting.
